

As you walk in for the first time or the thousandth time, may you feel welcome.

May this be a place for you to discover, empower & express your creative truth.

May this be a place of inspiration, ideas and possibility.

Here, may you find your courage, your confidence and your creativity.

Here, may you discover that you are a creature of magic capable of great wonders.

Here, may you know that your life is your studio and you are an artist.